NEW MUSEUM ANNOUNCES APPOINTMENT OF GARY CARRION-MURAYARI TO THE POSITION OF ASSOCIATE CURATOR

The New Museum is pleased to announce the appointment of Gary Carrion-Murayari to the position of Associate Curator. Gary joins the curatorial staff from the Whitney Museum of American Art, where he has worked for the past seven years. During that time he curated or co-curated exhibitions including "Television Delivers People," "Elad Lassry: Three Films," "Progress," "Sites," and "Whitney on Site: Tauba Auerbach." He is currently organizing the upcoming exhibition "Karthik Pandian: Uneath." Together with Francesco Bonami, he co-curated the 2010 Whitney Biennial.

"Gary is one of the most active curators in New York City," says Massimiliano Gioni, the New Museum's Associate Director and Director of Exhibitions. "He has done an amazing job supporting and exhibiting artists of his generation. He is going to bring great energy to the New Museum, keeping the institution connected to the most interesting art of today."

ABOUT THE NEW MUSEUM

Founded in 1977, the New Museum is the first and only museum in New York City dedicated to contemporary art. The museum is a premier destination for new art and new ideas both in New York and beyond, with a curatorial program recognized in the United States for its global scope and adventurousness.
